

York County Sheriff's Office

Identity Theft Victim's Packet

Information and Instructions

This packet should be completed once you have received a copy of your police report from the York County Sheriff's Office. Please keep your report and make copies as necessary to provide to your creditors, financial institutions and credit reporting agencies.

My York County Sheriff's Office Report Number is:

This packet is for you to keep and contains information to assist you in the correction of your credit and to help ensure that you are not responsible for the debts incurred by the identity thief. In addition, this packet includes information that will allow you to obtain financial records related to the fraudulent accounts and provide those records to law enforcement, without which we cannot continue an investigation sufficient for prosecution. We recognize that some victims are only interested in the correction of their credit and do not necessarily wish to cooperate with our investigation; therefore, we request that you only submit this packet to the York County Sheriff's Office if you desire to assist with our investigation. It is important to understand that in the event a suspect is identified and arrested and the case proceeds to court, you as the victim would be required to participate in the prosecution of the person charged.

You will need to complete the dispute letters and provide us with necessary documentation before we can continue the investigation into your case. Examples of the document evidence we need are on the last page of this packet. Without document evidence, we cannot continue the investigation. Please write your report number on copies of documents you send us. In identity theft cases it is difficult to identify the suspect(s) as they often use inaccurate information such as addresses and phone numbers. Frequently the investigator cannot find evidence to prove who actually used your name and/or personal information. It is important to note that even if the suspect cannot be identified for prosecution, it will not affect your ability to correct the fraudulent activity and remove them from your credit.

Note:

- If you suspect someone is using your personal information for employment and there is no evidence of other identity fraud, see the section for contacting the Social Security Administration under Additional Useful Information. Do not contact the employer directly as they may warn the suspect employee.

- If your name and/or information is used by someone to avoid a traffic ticket or any criminal prosecution, please contact the agency investigating the original crime. It may not be necessary to complete this packet.

Helpful Hints:

- Remember that each creditor has different policies and procedures for correcting fraudulent accounts.
 - Do not provide originals and be sure to keep copies of everything you provide to the creditors or companies involved in your identity theft.
 - Write down all dates, times and names of individuals you speak to regarding the identity theft and correction of your credit.

Step 1: Contact your bank and other credit card issuers.

If the theft involved existing bank accounts (checking or savings accounts as well as credit or debit cards) you should do the following:

- Close the account that was used fraudulently or put stop payments on all outstanding checks that might have been written without your knowledge.
- Close all credit card accounts that were used fraudulently.
- Close any account accessible by debit card if it has been accessed fraudulently.
- Open up new accounts protected with a secret password or personal identification number (PIN).

If the identity theft involved the creation of new bank accounts, you should do the following:

- Call the involved financial institution and notify them of the identity theft.
 - They will likely require additional notification in writing (see step 4).

Step 2: Contact all three (3) major credit reporting bureaus (listed below).

First request the credit bureaus place a "Fraud Alert" on your file. A fraud alert will put a notice on your credit report that you have been the victim of identity theft. Merchants and financial institutions may opt to contact you directly before any new credit is taken out in your name. You may be able to place a Security Freeze in which a PIN can be designated on your credit file and subsequently the PIN must then be given in order for credit to be extended. Ask the credit reporting bureaus if you can place a Security Freeze on your files. You should contact each credit bureau individually. They are separate companies and will not share the information you provide.

Step 3: File a report with the Federal Trade Commission.

You can go on-line to file an identity theft complaint with the FTC at www.FTC.gov and click on the ID Theft icon or by calling 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338).

Step 4: Contact creditors involved in your Identity Theft by phone and in writing.

This step involves contacting all the companies or institutions that provided credit or opened new accounts for the suspect(s). Some examples include banks, mortgage companies, utility companies, telephone companies, cell phone companies, etc. Provide the creditors with the completed Identity Theft Affidavit (some may require that you use their own affidavits), Letter of Dispute, and a copy of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 (FACTA Law).

- Identity Theft Affidavit: A copy of the Federal Trade Commission's Identity Theft Affidavit can be found at the end of this packet. This is the same affidavit that the FTC makes available to victims of identity theft. The affidavit requests information regarding you as the victim, how the fraud occurred, law enforcement's actions, documentation checklists and Fraudulent Account Statement. NOTE. Some creditors, financial institutions, or collection agencies have their own affidavit that you may have to compete.
 - Letters of Dispute: Sample copies of Letters of Dispute can also be found at the end of this packet. This letter needs to be completed for every creditor involved in the identity theft. The letter of dispute should contain information related to the fraudulent account(s), your dispute of the account(s), and your request for the information to be corrected. In addition, the letter should reference FACTA and make a request that copies of any and all records related to the fraudulent accounts be provided to you and make those available to the York County Sheriff's Office.
 - Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 (FACTA): A portion of the FACTA Law can also be found at the end of this packet. The FACTA Law allows for you to obtain copies of any and all records related to the fraudulent accounts; thereby allowing us to bypass the sometimes difficult process of obtaining subpoenas for the very same information. It also allows you to request the information be made available to the York County Sheriff's Office. We have found it useful to provide a copy of the FACTA Law with the submission of the Identity Theft Affidavit and Letter of Dispute to the individual creditors.

Step 5: Submit the Identity Theft Affidavit AND copies of all information and records obtained from creditors with regard to the fraudulent accounts to:

York County Sheriff's Office
Attn: CID
1675 2-A York Highway
York, SC 29745

To avoid confusion and to ensure that all items are forwarded to the assigned detective, we request that you submit everything at one time and if possible do not send items separately. Be sure to write your

Sheriff's Office report number on all items submitted. The types of document evidence needed are listed on the next page. The information can be hand delivered or mailed. Please remember that some victims are only interested in the correction of their credit and do not wish for prosecution. Therefore, we request that you only submit this packet to the York County Sheriff's Office if you desire prosecution and would be willing and available to appear and testify in court should a suspect be identified and arrested.

Additional Useful Information

- ✓ Post Office: If you suspect that your mail has been stolen or diverted with a false change-of-address request, contact your local postal inspector. You can obtain the address and telephone number of the postal inspector for your area at the United States Postal Service website: <https://postalinspectors.uspis.gov> or by calling 800-275-8777.
- ✓ Social Security Administration: If you suspect that someone is using your social security number to obtain employment, contact the Social Security Administration's fraud hotline at 800-269-0271. Answer the prompt about ID Theft. Wait for the explanation concerning the Federal Trade Commission then respond to the prompts to obtain your earnings statement so that you can check the accuracy of your work history on file with the Social Security Administration. This can be a difficult process and will require some persistence and patience.
- ✓ Internal Revenue Service: The IRS Office of Special Investigations can be contacted at www.irs.gov to report false tax filings, potential criminal violations of the Internal Revenue Code and related financial crimes.
- ✓ If you are contacted by a collection agency: about a debt, for which you are not responsible, immediately notify them that you did not create the debt and that you are a victim of identity theft. Follow up with the collection agency and creditor in writing and include a copy of your police report, ID Theft Affidavit, Letter of Dispute and a copy of the FACTA Law.
